by deleting the final sentence of Section 2(b) of the printed bill which reads as follows:

Such record book shall be open to the inspection of any law enforcement officer during the ordinary hours of business or at any reasonable time.

and by substituting instead the following:

Upon the request of a law enforcement officer, such record book shall be made available for inspection within a period of time which is reasonable under the individual circumstances surrounding such request. Nothing contained within the provisions of this act shall be construed to require the vendor to possess such record book on or about his or her person while attending a flea market.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting from Section 2(c) of the printed bill the words "and shall be kept by the vendor and made available during any period at which such person is open for business or is offering property for sale".

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting from Section 2(e)(1)(C) of the printed bill the words and punctuation "destroy, or remove such record book from his or her place of business during any time such record book is required to be present" and by substituting instead the following:

or destroy such record book

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting Section 2(e)(1)(D) of the printed bill and by substituting instead the following:

(D) Refuse or fail, upon the request of a law enforcement officer, to make such record book available for inspection within a period of time which is reasonable under the individual circumstances surrounding such request;
